Katsu Kaishu Memorial Museum Special Exhibit

Mourning Kaishu: Revelations from a Water Basin and Ancient Writings

In front of Kaishu's grave on the shore of Senzokuike pond is a suiban water basin. It was dedicated to the late Kaishu by more than 50 donors. This exhibit presents Kaishu's relationships in his later years through materials concerning the people who were associated with the basin's dedication. Planned exhibits include materials relating to the suiban basin as well as items that can only be seen in Ota City, among them a Chinese poem composed at Kaishu's Senzokuken villa by Kimura Kaishu, who traveled to the United States with Kaishu aboard the Kanrin Maru.

Learning Japanese Online

The COVID-19 pandemic has led to the closure of Japanese-language schools and classes where students gather in classrooms and learn face-to-face with a teacher. This is undoubtedly inconveniencing many Japanese learners. We therefore present several websites and applications that can be used to study Japanese online at home even amid the pandemic. Please give them a try.
