[Be aware of your My Number Card's expiration date!]

If you are a foreign national with a fixed period of stay, the expiration date of your period of stay is also the expiration date of your Individual Number Card (known as "My Number Card"). Consequently, when you renew your period of stay, you must also renew the expiration date of your My Number Card. You can do this by completing the necessary procedure at the Ota City Office's Household Residents Registry Division or the Ota City My Number Card Center by the expiration date of your period of stay (before renewal). If you do not complete this procedure, your My Number Card will expire and you will be charged a fee for its reissue. Contact the office provided below for details.

[Ota City Citizens' Sports Festival]

Ota City provides opportunities to become acquainted with various sports and recreational activities through the "Citizens' Sports Festival" held on Sports Day. The aim is to promote interest in and understanding of sports among Ota City residents and to motivate them to participate in physical activity. By offering activities the whole family can enjoy, from children to the elderly, the festival promotes intergenerational interaction, health, physical fitness, and motivation for living. It also encourages community building through mutual interaction among residents. In addition to the festival, a walking event around the Shin Sports Kenko Zone (New Sports and Health Area) will be held as a tie-in event on Sunday, October 23.
