

We visited 4 places in Ikegami that are listed in the "Selected 100 Souvenirs from Ota" and enjoyed the treats they had to offer along with Ota City's Coordinator of International Relations (CIR), Bethany (from Wales, UK). As CIR, Bethany undertakes a variety of duties to support the promotion of international exchange within the city, from translation and interpreting, to visiting schools, running workshops, supporting local events, media involvement and more.

Do you know the top food spots in Ikegami?

Hello! Thank you very much for picking up this community information paper. Ikegami is located in the centre of Ota-ku. It is a town full of history and culture, with many old-fashioned streets and temples. That is one of the reasons that many people often think of Ikegami Honmonji Temple as one of the most famous places in Ikegami. The five-storey pagoda of Honmonji is the oldest pagoda in the Kanto area and is even designated as a National Important Cultural Property. Every year from the 11th to the 13th of October, a festival called "Oeshiki" is held, which attracts many tourists. The Ikegami Baien (plum garden) near the Honmonji Temple is also thought to be a very famous spot. It is a quiet garden with around 370 plum trees, the official flower of Ota City. In early spring, bountiful red and white flowers bloom with fragrance.

There is so much more to see and do in Ikegami. We hope you will come to love our historic city.

Irresistibly crunchy on the outside with plenty of cream of the inside!
